

Privacy policy for report.idea.ee

This document sets out our views and principles concerning the collection, processing and use of personal data. The entity responsible for this on this website is Idea AD AS (address: Tartu mnt. 13, Tallinn, Harju County, 10145, telephone: 6691000, report@idea.ee).

In using the Service, you agree that your personal data will be collected and processed according to the terms prescribed by this Privacy Policy. You can withdraw your consent to the collection and processing of your personal data at any time (except for the data provided for performance of obligations arising from a transaction) by giving notice thereof to the processor of personal data by emailing report@idea.ee or calling 6691000. If you do not agree with the terms set out in the Privacy Policy, you should stop using this website.

We do not use or share your personal data, except in cases described in this Privacy Policy. We respect your privacy. We use your personal data to provide the Service or to enhance its quality. We ensure the integrity, availability and confidentiality of your data.

Unless otherwise specified, all the definitions used in the Privacy Policy are the same as in other documents that regulate the Service and can be found on report.idea.ee.

Collection and processing of information

In providing the Service, we reserve the right to ask you to reveal your personal data that can be used for your identification or for contacting you. Personal data include: first name, surname, email address and telephone number. We collect this data to determine the winner of a campaign, be able to identify the winner and contact him or her to present the prize.

We only process your personal data according to the purposes laid down in this Privacy Policy. We only collect your personal data to the extent necessary for achieving the purposes laid down in this Privacy Policy.

Security

The security of your data is very important to us. Having said that, we should point out that no data forwarding, or electronic recording method is 100% secure. We comply with the data protection recommendations known and recognised in our industry as well as with the requirements laid down by law for personal data security measures. In view of the above, we cannot give you absolute guarantees as regards the protection of your data.

Privacy of minors

Our services are not meant for minors. If minors do use our services, this should be done with parental guidance and with the consent of the parents or the legal guardian. If you are a parent or a legal guardian of a minor and you have the information that he or she has revealed his or her personal data to us without your consent, please let us know immediately and we will delete this data from our servers right away.

We do not knowingly collect information about children under 14 years old. If we discover that a child under 14 years old has revealed us his or her personal data, we immediately delete such data from our servers.

Protection of your rights

You have the right to examine your personal data in our possession and to receive additional information concerning the processing of your personal data. You have the right to submit your grievances about the processing of your personal data if this right arises from the Personal Data Protection Act or other enactments. If you find that, in processing your personal data, we have infringed your rights, you can send a request to our email at report@idea.ee and demand that such an infringement be stopped.

Log data

We collect information sent by your web browser when you use our Service ("Log"). This data may include the Internet Protocol (IP) address of your computer, the type and version of your web browser, pages visited in our Service, the time and date of using our Service, the time spent on using the Service and other statistics.

Cookies

Cookies are documents that may contain such data as, for example, the anonymous unique identifier (UID). Cookies are sent by websites to your web browser and are saved on the hard disk of your computer.

We use Cookies to collect and/or record data. You can adjust your web browser in such a way that it will not save cookies or will notify you when cookies are used.
